

North America Sarbojanin Kalipuja Association Inc.

(NASKA Inc)

Cheshire,CT

September 03, 2011.

Dear Patron,

South Asian community of North America is proud to celebrate the Second Year of Sarbojanin (Community) KALI PUJA in Connecticut. Puja along with dinner and entertainment is scheduled for Saturday, 29th October 2011 in Newington High School, 605 Willard Avenue, CT.

The purpose of this annual Kali Puja is to seek the help of goddess in destroying evil within us and diminish all negative tendencies that lessen our spiritual growth. This religious festival will increase the degree of awareness of traditional Kali Puja and its functions and activities involved, among the South Asian community especially to the generation that are raised in North America.

Like last year, we are expecting large number of guests in this auspicious and entertainment event.

To make this program successful and affordable to all individuals we are seeking assistance from you by publishing your advertisements in our Souvenir Journal and web site www.naska.org.

Last year, during the peak period we had more than 4000 hits/month in our web site. Due to our popularity and success, we expect this hit count to increase substantially. We need 7 days to setup your advertisement in our web site. Advertisements will be displayed in our web site until 11/15/2011.

Attached is a price sheet indicating the fee for various advertisement sizes. We would prefer that your advertisements be photo ready in final form; however we will be glad to create your Ad based on the information you provide.

If you have questions about the Souvenir Journal or web adv, please contact Kaushik Mitra (kaushikmitra@yahoo.com); Samir Podder (swagata@comcast.net); Satyabrata Sau (satyasau@yahoo.com).

Sincerely,
The Souvenir Journal Committee
